2022 – 2023 Congressional Youth Advisory Council

The Congressional Youth Advisory Council (CYAC) is a leadership opportunity for high school students in the 24th Congressional District of Texas to participate in an interactive learning experience and develop leadership skills.

Participation in the Congressional Youth Advisory Council offers students a unique opportunity to learn about the federal government, discuss public policy, and work with their federal representative while serving their community.

Through the program, students will strengthen critical thinking and problem-solving skills by assessing the role of the federal government as it relates to issues within the 24th Congressional District of Texas while enhancing their public speaking and writing skills.

Eligibility Requirements

- Open to public, private, and home-schooled high school students.
- Student must be enrolled in 9th, 10th, 11th, or 12th grade.
- Student must be able to attend each of the six separate program meetings, three each academic semester.
  - Fall meetings will take place on the following Saturdays, September 24, October 15, and November 12.
  - Three (3) Spring meeting dates will be announced in December 2022.

*Note: All meeting dates are subject to possible changes in the Congressional calendar.

Application Process

In order to be considered, completed applications, including all required documents, must be returned to Congresswoman Van Duyne’s District Office no later than September 14, 2022 by 5:00 p.m. Incomplete or late applications will not be reviewed.
